Letter from Chief C. Sether

March, 2003

Dear Citizens of Kenmore:

The men and women of the Kenmore Police Department are committed to providing high-quality, professional law enforcement services to the citizens of Kenmore. We are dedicated to being responsive to the needs of the community. We have enjoyed an active partnership with our citizens that has embraced the philosophy of community-oriented policing and problem solving. As a result of this partnership we have seen reductions in crime and the fear of crime.

In January 1999, Kenmore formed a partnership with the City of Covington to share a motorcycle traffic officer. The officer spent two weeks a month in each respective city enforcing traffic laws. In 2002, I conducted an assessment of the current needs of the Police Department and made a recommendation to add a full time traffic car position and remove the half-time motor officer effective January 1, 2003. After this recommendation was approved, Officer Conner was selected to fill the full-time traffic car position. He has twenty-three years of law enforcement experience, which includes assignments in the Sheriff's Office Special Operations Division as a motorcycle traffic officer and as a member of the Special Weapons and Tactical Team (S.W.A.T.) Officer Conner's goal is to increase traffic safety in Kenmore through a balance of education and enforcement.

This year we introduced several new crime prevention programs for Kenmore citizens. Officer Childers, storefront officer, is trained and certified in crime prevention and has offered the following programs:

The Home Security Survey - This survey is helpful in identifying ways to make your home more secure and reduce your chance of becoming a victim of a burglary. The survey is free whether you own your home, or rent it. The survey includes:

- A security survey of the premises.
- Information on how to make your valuables more secure.
- Tips on lighting, landscaping, door and window security, and alarms.
- Personal safety tips to make you and your family more secure.
- Information of Neighborhood Block Watches.
- The importance of Operation ID.

The Vacation House Check Program – This program is offered to all residents who are planning to be out of town for one week or longer. While you are away, a Kenmore Police volunteer will check the exterior of your residence several times a week to ensure the doors and windows are secured and have not been damaged. Participants of this program also receive helpful hints on how to properly secure their house before leaving on vacation.

One of the many priorities of Kenmore Police is to improve communication between citizens and police officers. In an effort to make citizens more aware of police organization, policies and patrol procedures, we have joined in partnership with the cities of Shoreline and Woodinville to sponsor an annual, "Citizens Academy." The academy is ten weeks long and meets once a week on Tuesday evenings from 6:00 to 9:00 p.m. The academy covers a wide variety of subjects from the history of policing to criminal investigations and special operations. Participants are also scheduled to ride with a police officer for a shift and experience first-hand what it is like to respond to 911 calls.

This report is a review of our performance during the year 2002. It is a compilation of statistics that portray our work and commitment to the citizens of Kenmore. I am happy to report that this year we have seen a reduction in many crime categories such as: Rape, Robbery, Aggravated Assaults, Thefts and Domestic Violence, just to mention a few. We will continue to review our strategies and use innovative techniques in our on-going efforts to reduce crime in Kenmore.

We invite your comments and questions.

Sincerely,

C. G. Sether
Chief of Police

- Adding a Full-time Traffic Safety Officer (page 2)
- Reduction in Crimes (pages 6-9)
- Crime Prevention Efforts (page 17)

Goal: Reduce Crime and the Fear of Crime

The goal to reduce crime and the fear of crime is a standard goal of law enforcement agencies worldwide. Efforts to support this goal vary with variations in laws, limitations and liabilities of law enforcement agencies, community preferences, socio-economic factors and available resources.

The objectives chosen to provide direction for Kenmore's police department in support of this goal are:

- use information for crime analysis,
- apprehend offenders,
- prevent crime, and
- improve citizens' feeling of security.

The measures on the following pages report the efforts and accomplishments of Kenmore's police department as reflected in the amount of crime (crime rates and statistics), crime incident case clearance rates, adult and juvenile arrest and charge statistics, workload of crime prevention efforts, citizen communications activities and citizen survey results.

Objective: Use Information for Crime Analysis

The "Crime Rate"

Total Part I Crimes

"Part I Crimes" is a category of crimes established by the U. S. Department of Justice Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) that consists of murder, rape, robbery, aggravated assault, burglary, larceny, motor vehicle theft and arson. Part I Crimes compared to the population are known as the "Crime Index" or "Crime Rate." (The Crime Rate is known as the Modified Crime Rate when Arson data is included.)

"Part II Crimes" consist of all other crimes not included in the Part I Crimes category. Part II crimes vary due to differences in local laws.

Part I Crimes Per 1,000 Residents
Commonly known as the "Crime Rate"

National Modified Crime Rate

The FBI calculates and publishes the national crime rate based on the information sent to them by participating agencies. This information is usually released in the fourth quarter of the following year. The most recent data available as of this report is the crime rate for 2001 (published in October, 2002).

In 2001, citizens of Kenmore were asked how concerned they were about speeding traffic. 34.0% stated they were concerned (rated 4 on a 1-5 scale) while 25.0% stated they were "very concerned." (In 1998, 16.2% of the Kenmore citizens surveyed stated they were concerned (rated 4 on a 1-5 scale) while 37.4% stated they were "very concerned.")

Cases Closed "Cleared by Arrest"

The closed cases below are cases known as "cleared by arrest." Although not every case suspect is "arrested," each suspect in these cases has been recommended for criminal charges that may eventually result in an arrest or another form of punitive action (such as a citation). Cases "cleared by arrest" are sent to the King County Prosecutor's office - with the officer or detective's recommendation to file criminal charges. A prosecuting attorney is solely responsible for the decision to formally file charges and prosecute defendants.

Goal: Provide High-quality, Cost-effective, and Accountable Services to the City of Kenmore, WA

The goal "to provide high-quality, cost-effective, and accountable services" is a goal any service industry might strive for. It reflects a concern for the appropriate and effective use of community resources. Efforts to support this goal are made in partnership with elected officials and police administrators, taking into consideration problem areas, community concerns for quality of life and resources available.

The objectives chosen to provide direction for Kenmore's police department in support of this goal are:

- provide responsive services to citizens, and
- provide cost-effective services to citizens.

The measures on the following pages report the efforts and accomplishments of Kenmore's police department using traditional responsiveness measures (such as response times and complaints) as well as citizen survey information. Additionally, cost information is shown in ratios of cost by the population, by available revenue, by staffing and by volume of work.

Response to Calls

Edited Dispatched Calls for Service (DCFS), Self-initiated Police Activities and Alternative Call Handling (ACH) Reports

Police engage in a variety of activities in a workday. Primarily police activity is captured in the number of “calls” responded to during a day. A “call” may be an incident called in by a citizen to the 9-1-1 center or a call may be “self initiated” by the officer responding to a crime they’ve witnessed or to chronic problems in a neighborhood (see Problem Solving Projects on page 15). In addition to the calls responded to by officers, the Alternative Call Handling (ACH) program allows 9-1-1 center operators to take certain police reports over the phone in order to allow police officers more time to respond to citizens who need an officer present at the location of their incident.

Below are the numbers of Edited Dispatched Calls For Service (DCFS), Self-initiated Police Activities and Alternative Call Handling (ACH) incidents reported for the past four years.

Call Priorities and Response Times

When calls for police assistance are received by the Communications (9-1-1) Center, they are entered into the Computer Aided Dispatch (CAD) system and given a “priority” based on the criteria described below. If the call receiver is in doubt as to the appropriate priority, the call is assigned the higher of the two priority designators in question.

“Priority X” designates critical dispatches, those incidents that pose an obvious danger to the life of an officer or citizen. It is used for felony crimes in-progress where the possibility of confrontation between a victim and suspect exists. Examples include: shootings, stabbings, robberies or burglaries.

“Priority 1” designates immediate dispatches; those calls that require immediate police action. Examples include: silent alarms, injury traffic accidents, in-progress crimes or crimes so recent that the suspect may still be in the immediate area.

“Priority 2” designates prompt dispatches; those calls that could escalate to a more serious degree if not policed quickly. Examples include: verbal disturbances, audible alarms and blocking traffic accidents.

Average Response Times* to High Priority Calls in Minutes

* The 9-1-1 Center for the City of Kenmore Police measures response times from the time a citizen's phone call is received to the time an officer arrives at the location of the incident.

Objective: Provide Cost-effective Services to Citizens

Costs of Services

The City of Kenmore contracts with the King County Sheriff's Office (KCSO) for police services. Among other benefits, contracting for services from a larger law enforcement agency allows for cost savings through "economies of scale." Specific economies of scale provided through the contract with KCSO include:

- Existing Mutual Aid Agreements with other law enforcement agencies in Washington State,
- A large pool of officers if back-up help is necessary,
- Coverage if your officers are away,
- Expertise of specialized units to assist officers,
- More experienced officers to select from for staffing, and
- Costs shared throughout the department keeping city costs down.

Costs for police services vary depending on a city's resources and the level and type of police services the community wants. The dollar amounts and staffing levels shown below are taken from the contracts for police services (billed financial exhibits) for the years indicated. The City of Kenmore may have had additional funds or expenditures for special projects or programs as part of the city's law enforcement budget that are not reflected in this report.

The following are four ways of putting the cost-to-services picture together for the City of Kenmore. (NOTE: Dollar amounts shown have not been adjusted for inflation.)

Cost per Capita

Cost Per Capita shows the contract cost for police services divided by Kenmore's population (for example: year 2002 contract cost ($2,017,835) divided by year 2002 population (19,180) = $105.21). (Year 2000 U.S. Census data was the basis for the 2001 and 2002 estimated population used in the calculations shown below. For years prior to 2000, population estimates are based on the 1990 U.S. Census data.)

Commissioned Officers Per 1,000 Residents shows how many commissioned police officers are employed by Kenmore for every 1,000 residents. Edited Dispatched Calls for Service (DCFS) Per Patrol Officer gives a picture of the average number of dispatched calls one patrol officer responds to within a year. This number only uses dispatched calls Kenmore pays for and does not include the number of responses an officer initiates (such as witnessing and responding to traffic violations). Also, the numbers below are patrol only and exclude non-patrol commissioned officers (such as supervisors or special duty officers/detectives).

Glossary

Adult Arrests: An arrest is counted every time an adult is cited for a criminal offense or is booked. More specifically:

1. It includes all adult bookings, plus
2. All adult citations that are classified as criminal non-traffic.
3. When an adult is both cited and booked, it is counted only once.

CAD: See "Computer Aided Dispatch" below.

Cases Cleared/Clearance: This refers to the solving of an offense by arrest or, in some circumstances, by exceptional means (e.g., the suspect died, is imprisoned on another charge, victim refuses to testify, etc.).

Cleared by Arrest: This is a case that is closed by identifying at least one suspect and charges against that suspect(s) are recommended to the Prosecuting Attorney. Although called "cleared by arrest" this closure does not require physical booking into a jail or juvenile detention facility. It also does not require the charging of all suspects if/when there are multiple suspects involved in a crime. This category includes criminal citations into district and municipal courts for misdemeanors, felony filings into Superior Court, and all filings into Juvenile Court.

Other clearance codes:

1. "Cleared Exceptional" refers to a case in which a crime and a suspect involved in the crime have both been confirmed but due to circumstances outside the control of law enforcement, charges are not being recommended to the Prosecuting Attorney. (One example of this is when the suspect is already being charged for the crime by another police jurisdiction.)
2. "Cleared Unfounded" refers to a case in which it is discovered that the reported incident was either not true or was not a crime.
3. "Cleared Administrative" refers to an incident found to be non-criminal in nature, but which requires some police action to close the incident (e.g., handling of lost and found property).
4. "Cleared Inactive" refers to cases in which all investigative leads have been exhausted (or none existed) and the case cannot be closed by any other clearance classifications.

Citation: Often called a "ticket," a citation is a written document issued to a citizen who commits a crime or violates a law. The citation describes the crime and/or the law that has been violated and identifies the punishment that has been standardized by the court system (i.e., the standardized monetary amounts payable for traffic violations). While citations prescribe a penalty for a crime, they may be challenged through the court system. They usually include instructions for the cited citizen to appeal the citation.

Computer Aided Dispatch (CAD): A computerized communication system used by emergency response agencies for dispatching and tracking calls for emergency assistance.

Domestic Violence: Domestic violence is a subcategory of other crimes. Virtually any crime can be sub-classified as domestic violence. In the State of Washington, domestic violence is defined as a crime of violence against the person or property of a spouse, former spouse, persons related by blood or marriage, persons who have a child in common, former/current roommates, persons who have or had a dating relationship, and persons related to the suspect by the parent-child (biological or legal) relationship. In some cases, the age of the victim or suspect may determine whether or not the legal definition above is met.

Dispatched Calls For Service (DCFS): Dispatched calls for service are calls received in the Communications Center and to which one or more patrol cars are dispatched. For information about "Edited Dispatched Calls For Service (DCFS)" see the Data Sources section of this report.

Felony: Felony crimes are more serious in terms of either harm or loss to persons or property than misdemeanors, and usually are punished by more restrictive methods than citations. Felonies have subclasses (A, B and C) that are based on the extent of harm to a person or the dollar value of loss or damage to property.

Identifier Codes for Priority of Dispatched Police Calls: The Computer Aided Dispatch (CAD) systems used by 9-1-1 Centers use a system of codes to identify the types of calls to which police are being dispatched. Along with categorizing the type of incident the codes also assign the call a priority level based on the urgency required for the police response. The following are the priority levels used by the Communications (9-1-1) Center for the various types of police calls:

- Priority 0 (9-1-1 Dispatch): This code is used when a dispatcher sends a police unit to an incident based on the location, name and phone number information automatically generated by the 9-1-1 CAD system based on the origin of the call. This may be necessary when a caller is unable (for whatever reasons) to give the information or gives minimal information before the call is somehow terminated. Open phone lines and disconnected lines to which a call-receiver is unable to re-contact the caller are also examples of Priority 0 calls.
- Priority X (Critical Dispatch): This code is used for incidents that pose an obvious danger to the life of an officer or citizen. Examples are felony crimes in progress, "help the officer" situations, shootings, stabbings, in-progress robberies and in-progress burglaries where the possibility of a confrontation between a victim and a suspect exists.
- Priority 1 (Immediate Dispatch): This code is used for incidents requiring immediate police action. Examples are silent alarms at banks or businesses, silent residential alarms, injury accidents, major disturbances with weapons involved, in-progress burglaries of unoccupied structures, and other types of crimes in-progress (or which have just occurred) where a suspect may still be in the immediate area.
- Priority 2 (Prompt Dispatch): This code is used for events that involve situations that could escalate to a more serious degree if not policed quickly. Examples are verbal disturbances, audible residential or audible commercial alarms and blocking accidents, and incidents of shoplifters in custody who are not causing a problem.
- Priority 3 (Routine Dispatch): This code is used for incidents in which time is not the critical factor in the proper handling of the call. Examples are burglaries or larcenies that are not in progress, "cold" vehicle thefts and abandoned vehicle calls.
- Priority 4 (Dispatch as available): This code is used for special circumstances or "seasonal" calls. Examples are reports of snowball throwing during winter months or firecracker complaints around July 4th.

Misdemeanor: Crimes that inflict harm or loss but to a lesser extent than a felony (e.g., assault fourth degree or simple assault). Misdemeanors usually are punished through monetary payment via a citation and/or other restrictions (such as restraining orders or no trespass orders).

Part I Crimes: This is a category of crimes established by the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI). It includes criminal homicide (which includes murder and non-negligent manslaughter; but excludes deaths by negligence, attempts to kill, suicides, accidental deaths, justifiable homicide, and traffic fatalities), forcible rape, robbery, aggravated assault, burglary, larceny-theft, motor vehicle theft, and arson.

Part I Crimes Against Persons: These crimes are also referred to as "violent crimes." They consist of criminal homicide (as defined above), forcible rape, robbery, and aggravated assault.

Part I Crimes Against Property: These are burglary, larceny, motor vehicle theft, and arson.

Part II Crimes: This is a category of crimes consisting of all other crimes not included in the Part I Crimes category. Part II crimes vary due to differences in local laws, but typically include one or more of the following crimes: all other assaults (simple), forgery and counterfeiting, fraud, embezzlement, stolen property (buying, receiving and/or possessing), vandalism, weapons (carrying, possessing, etc.), prostitution and commercialized vice, sex offenses (including statutory rape, indecent exposure, etc. but excluding forcible rape, prostitution and commercialized vice), drug violations, gambling, offenses against families and children, driving under the influence of alcohol or drugs, liquor violations, drunkenness, disorderly conduct, and others.

- City of Kenmore Police (information regarding: crime prevention activities, problem solving projects and public communication and education efforts)
- Edited Dispatched Calls For Service (DCFS) are the incidents that originate with a phone call to the 9-1-1 Center requesting a police response (either emergency or non-emergency). Improved Data

One of the functions of a Service Efforts and Accomplishments Report is to highlight data collection and reporting methods that may need modification. Since the first annual report was published in 2000, the research and publishing staff have identified several ways to improve the data presented in these reports. Many improvements were implemented since that time and therefore data may differ somewhat in subsequent reports.
